The circulation of the APPEAL is increasing so rapidly that our former fastilities are made quate to the work required. We are therefore astrained to order a double-cylinder Hoe press for our purposes, the first ever ordered ense we intend, at an early day, to present he Appral to its readers in an entire new iress, greatly enlarged and otherwise im proved. The proposed improvements will cost us about ten thousand dollars; but this ontlay is due to those who have so generously pat onized the paper, while it will be an incen tive for increased support. Now is the time to subscribe for the APPRAL for 1872. Those who intend to take the paper next rear should remit at once, in order that their subscriptions may commence with the new year. Great as the prosperity of the APPEAN has been for the last thirty years, we are resolved that past issues shall be exceeded in aried excellence and interest by those of 1872 The proceedings of congress, the presidential election, and our own State elections, and many other impending questions, will combine to invest a newspaper in 1872, with pro found interest. It will be the constant aim o the APPEAL to present an instructive pano rama of the world. Instead of emptying into being most thankful for that which is longes $4 50 for feeders; $4 85%@$6 for fat oxen and stupidest, every department of the paper will be carefully edited and presented as an epitome of the world's doings. In a word, the estly and interestingly; to aid in all good eauses; to expose abuses and stimulate re-form; to represent the most liberal thoughts and highest tendencies of the time; to wel come all schemes that premise good; to encourage all human enterprises; to stimulate the love of knowledge, a taste for art and the culture of all the better parts of our nature;

to sustain good government and honest rulers and to condemn and upset the bad and to war upon eliques, coteries and "rings." In view of the momentors issues bound up in the hidden mysteries of 1872, we expect a arge accession to our subscription list. We shall certainly make the APPRAL deserving of a large paironage. Notwithstanding the high price of paper, composition and general expenses, the price of the APPRAL is about the same as that charged before the war, when urexpenses were one-third less than now.
